

Climate Security guiding questions

1. What are the current and expected security threats driven by climate change dynamics in the region?
2. What is the most pressing climate-security threat in the region and your community? Why?
3. How can community anticipate, predict, mitigate and manages these climate-security threats?
4. What are the current political, management and financial limitation to address climate-security threats?

